

Well-being for WOMEN

NEW ZEALAND

We invite you to join a bi-monthly Well-being for Women presentation where we explore relevant topics and themes about understanding our bodies and how this supports us to build a deeper relationship with ourselves. Life today is so focused on being busy and what we can do, that we often forget about the body that carries us through our every day.

In these groups we will:

- Explore the relationship we have with our body and how this is key to connecting to our natural wisdom so we can bring more understanding and ease to our daily lives,
- Experience the power of shared discussions on a wide variety of topics including exhaustion, stress, perfection, sleep, food, self-care, periods, menopause and more,
- Enjoy connecting with one another.

These groups are for women of all ages, no matter how different our lives may look on the surface, underneath we are all the same; we experience the same worries, the same fears and the same challenges. Our personal lived experience has the power to inspire others, as we in turn are inspired by them.
